

TESTIMONIALS

David Lieb, Associate Vice President, Penn State University - I would highly recommend this session and encourage anyone thinking about offering a staff development training opportunity in the area(s) of ethics, integrity and/or leadership to seriously consider the Center For Cowboy Ethics and Leadership.

Jim Geesey, CEO, Mountain West Farm Bureau Insurance - You hit it out of the park with your Standing Tall program. It was a very enriching presentation from both a personal and professional perspective. The exercise of putting into writing "What Do You Stand For?" was very powerful. Our agency force has communicated more positive feedback to me about your course than any other program we have shared with them over the past 10 years.

Dr. Leslie Carter, Deschutes Dermatology Center - I just wanted to thank you for the great program you put on in Boise. I am already putting many of the principles into practice and plan on sharing the philosophy with my staff at our next meeting.

Shaun Andrikopoulos, Ultra Petroleum Visiting Chair, University of Wyoming – There are many ways this presentation and process could be leveraged into corporate leadership training programs. In fact, I think it could supplant a lot of the multi-day "values" sessions that consultants constantly try to sell businesses, as it's much more efficient.

Commander Scott Mills, Los Alamos, NM Police Department – I want to take this opportunity to express my thanks to you for bringing this excellent program to my community. The training was excellent and it helped to rekindle a vigor to maintain the highest levels of integrity. Thank you!

Richard Uhl, SVP, Banking Group, First Interstate Bank - I have completed my pledge to Stand Tall in my Community. Thank you for the opportunity to attend your program—it is excellent. I look forward to taking this message and dispersing it in the local community, as well as using it to set an example in my own place of work.

David Anderson, Director of Agent Development, New York Life Insurance Company - Motivation lasts a day, but inspiration lasts a lifetime. The Standing Tall program has inspired me. Thank you!

Steven Morse, President, Milwaukie Lumber Company - I have been in the Oregon Evergreen chapter of YPO (Young Presidents' Organization) for 16 years and for me, your presentation about "Cowboy Ethics" was one of the most powerful and relevant I have witnessed!! Keep up the good work!!

Brady Koerwitz, US Bank Home Mortgage - What a fantastic seminar. I am completely inspired! Would recommend the course to anyone looking to make a change for the better. Life changing!

Greg Lessard, President, Aspen Leaf Financial Planning - Standing Tall reminded me of the person I want to be. On the job, my business partner and I have agreed that our compliance procedures shouldn't just reflect compliance with my industry's regulations, but they should be based on principles of the highest ethics as well.

Lori Ridgway, Director of Workforce Development, Central Wyoming College - This presentation was fantastic! Informative, engaging, with a specific call to action for participants. The presenter was exceptional, making the topic of ethics logical and action-oriented. As a participant, you leave knowing you can make a difference in our society with courage and commitment to your code.

Chrisy Myhand, Emergency Department Clinical Director, Thibodaux, Louisiana Regional Medical Center - Thank you for assisting my company, TRMC, by providing us the opportunity to attend a 'Standing Tall' session...and thank you for inspiring us to be who our parents raised us to be...strong, hard-working, genuinely caring healthcare providers who strive for patient excellence.

Josey Stender, Head Women's Golf Coach, University of Wyoming - I want to thank you so much for an amazing, life changing presentation today. I will be taking home much self-reflection that I know will improve my roles as a wife, mother, friend, daughter and mentor. I know for certain our players are better for this!

Heidi Sheldon, National Vice President of Merchandising, M.D.C. Holdings, Inc. / Richmond American Homes - I recently attended the Code of the West Workshop in Denver, CO and enjoyed it immensely. The material presented was incredibly inspirational and thought provoking. I left feeling energized, inspired and excited about creating my own "code".

Rachel McCaughey, Assistant Director, Buffalo Chamber of Commerce - This program is invaluable! It made me more aware and conscious of trying to live my principles. Everyone really needs to take it. Honestly, I cannot wait to fine tune my principles...and share them. This program could change the world!

Craig Rood, Site Manager, OCI Chemical Corporation - I recently set up a Standing Tall workshop for the Leadership Team at OCI...I have been told by many that they truly enjoyed the session and feel it will help them grow as a leader. I would recommend Standing Tall for anyone who is looking for leadership training or team development.

Ronald Karkela CLU, Managing Partner, New York Life Insurance Company - I just wanted to let you know how much I appreciated your presentation at our kick-off meeting in February. Standing Tall was very well received by my agents and registered reps. In fact, one experienced agent said it was "the best New York Life meeting he had ever been to!" Indeed, "Cowboy Ethics" are important since there is a little Cowboy in all of us.
